

R&D Chemist

Job Summary:

- Good base on organic chemistry and knowledge of the chemical reactions
- Knowledge about the safe handling and use of chemicals and solvents, various lab glassware, as well as familiarity with a variety of laboratory instruments
- Scaling up and technology transfer to plant for commercial production
- Result interpretation of GC, HPLC, UV, and other routine analytical analysis
- Manage maintain records and co-ordinate for all R&D activities
- Clear and concise sharing of your findings and proactively communicating to the seniors.
- Time management skills and important priorities handling to ensure the multiple tasks completion on a timeline.
- Can conduct a full search and summary of technical literature related to work projects.
- Plan and schedule all technical activities of a project(s).

Education:

- B.Sc/M.Sc in Chemistry
- B.Sc/M.Sc in Organic Chemistry
- B.Eng in Chemical Engineering

Experience:

- Minimum experience of 2-5 years is required as an R&D in pharmaceutical industries or any other chemical industries.

To apply kindly mail your resume to jobs@ganeshremedies.com